The Chairman said that there had been a fantastic response from Weeting residents to come forward and join the volunteer group set up during the pandemic, there was at one time in excess of 50 volunteers on the list and the village needs to be congratulated in the way that they adapted and moved forward in very trying circumstances. There are still a few volunteers carrying out shopping and collecting prescriptions for some residents who are unable to get out themselves.

During the past year a new swing has been purchased and installed in the play area.
